*WE WELCOME GREG FIDDES
AS THE NEW CHAIR OF THE ACTION RANGE*

Greg has been a lifelong member of RRGC. He shot with the Juniors and volunteered at club dinners as part of the Junior Shooting Program. After many years of competition, he went on to win the Brogden Brothers Championship in 2005 and has since put in the work to become a Master Class shooter in several USPSA divisions and is a National Champion 3gun competitor. He's been a Range Officer on the Action Range for 13 years and has served many years as the Multigun Director and Multigun Squad leader.

As a newly appointed chair he hopes to bring a new enthusiasm to the club's leadership team. Steeped in club traditions he will work to make the range a better place and empower the Action Range Community to continue to host some of the best Action Shooting competitions available in the state, if not the nation.
